economics of the Notes as at the trade date or (ii) any force majeure, act of state, or other event or circumstance as a consequence of which the fulfilment of the obligations of the Issuer under the Notes has become impossible through the occurrence of an external event that is not attributable to the Issuer, including without limitation, it becoming illegal for the Issuer to have the Notes outstanding pursuant to any change in law, nationalisation or regulatory action, at (in the case of (i)) the higher of the market value of the Notes and the Principal Protected Amount or (in the case of (ii)) the fair market value of the Notes.

- a credit rating reduction may result in a reduction in the trading value of the Notes;
